VOL. II. NO. 231.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1896.

PRICE, 5 CTS

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Leon A. Legg has landed in San Francisco after a short stay in New Orleans.

Algol is wintering at Memphis and is likely to show as a gigantic colt in 1897.

Jockey J. Hill has signed to ride the horses of Dr. E. F. McLean of Cincinnati for the season of 1897.

The Spirit of the Times' Southern ramblers tells the Spirit that the Milwaukee pool rooms are closed. Of course the tale isn't true.

Old Geraldine will race no more. After her last start at Ingleside George Rose gave her to Mr. Spreckels and she is to go to his farm as a matron.

Mount McGregor who was a rogue as a two-year-old seems invincible in San Francisco just now. He has started seven times and won all his races.

Barney Schreiber came over on the Lahn which landed in New York Thursday and was in St. Louis Friday night. He starts for San Francisco to-day.

The United States officials might well suppress the pink weekly sheets of the East who label themselves "sporting" papers. They run to cheap people and gaudy events. Whenever they do not print or picture immorality they suggest both and calculate sportsmen such as August Belmont, Chas. Fleischmann, and Barney Schreiber on the same plane as a barber or a bagnio denizen or keeper. Such "sporting" papers libel "sport."

NEW JOCKEY CLUB RULES.

The Jockey Club at its annual meeting December 11, adopted some important amendments to the racing rules.

The first new rule of importance accepted was that relating to the capacity of tracks for admitting a field of horses. It is worded as follows:

The number of starters in any overnight race shall be limited by the width of the track at the starting post. Every horse shall be allowed five feet of width of the track. The number of starters shall be reduced to the proper number by lot or by divisions of the race at the option of the association.

The next feature, which was carried unanimously, was an amendment to the duties of the clerk of the course relating to his keeping a record of persons in arrears. The rule as amended reads:

The clerk of the course shall be the secretary of the association; he shall discharge all the duties, whether expressed or implied, required by the rules of racing, and report to the stewards all violations of the rules of racing, or of the regulations of the course coming under his notice; he shall keep a complete record of all races; he shall receive all stakes, forfeits, entrance money, fines, arrears and purchase money in selling races, and pay over all the money collected by him to the treasurer.

He shall, at the expiration of ten days after the meeting, notify the Secretary of the Jockey Club of all arrears then remaining unpaid.

The forfeit clerk's duties were made more binding. The amendments to the rule follows:

The forfeit clerk shall be in attendance on every race day of each meeting for the purpose of enforcing the forfeit list, and for collecting forfeits due.

He shall lodge with the clerk of the course not later than noon on each race day a list of forfeits to be collected on account of horses named to start, which list shall give the name or names of owners so in default, with the name of the horse, the amount to be collected, with the date, race and place where the forfeits were contracted, which list the clerk of the course shall at the end of each day racing return to the forfeit clerk with a written statement of the action taken on the forfeits in the list.

So long as the name of a person is in the forfeit list no horse can be entered by him or under his subscription for any race, whether acting as an agent or otherwise, and no horse which has been entered by him or in his name or under his subscription, or of which he is or was at the time of entry wholly or partly the owner, can run for any race, and no horse which shall be proved to the satisfaction of the stewards to be directly or indirectly under the care, management, or superintendence of a person who is in default shall be qualified to be entered or run for any race, and so long as any horse is in the forfeit list such horse shall not be qualified to be entered or run for any race. But the stewards of the Jockey Club may confirm entries where default is accidental or unintentional, and prompt payment is made.

This rule shall not apply to the entry for a produce stake of mares and stallions which are in the forfeit list.

If a horse which, or the owner of which, is in the forfeit list, be entered for any race in contravention of these rules, the nominator of such horse may be fined $200.

The raising of the scale of weights was the next point up for discussion. The amendments adopted are:

In races exclusively for three-year-olds or for four-year-olds, the weight shall be 125 pounds, and for two-year-olds 122 pounds.

In all handicaps the top weight shall not be less than 125 pounds.

If in a handicap for which there is a minor forfeit declared by a fixed time, the highest weight accepting was originally less than 125 pounds, it shall be raised to that weight, and the other acceptances equally.

The scale of weight for age shall be:

The minimum weight for any horse in any race was fixed at eighty-four pounds.

Jockeys and their conduct at the post were next taken up. This is how the amendment reads:

Any jockey presuming to start or even to put his horse into a trot or gallop, with a view to take any advantage, before the flags are dropped, hanging behind, or refusing to obey the commands of the starter in any respect whatever, shall be reported to the stewards. The suspension of a jockey shall not take effect until after the last race of the day of his sentence.

The question of fines imposed upon jockeys being paid by outsiders was brought up. The new rule now reads:

VI. All fines imposed upon jockeys by the stewards of the meeting must be paid by the jockeys themselves. Any person found paying the same shall be punished.

An important amendment, touching upon dead heats, was carried. It will prevent a repetition of one owner compelling another to run off or lose first money when the latter's horse has pulled up lame. It in fact, places the boot on the other foot and gives the owner of the crippled horse the option of dividing. The amendment is:

Start fair. Won galloping. The last three were off badly. St. Lee is a great horse just now. Lucania was very short. Chartreuse is in good form, but can't carry weight. Walter J stopped with his mouth open. Will do next time with good jockey only. Spreckels plainly prefers a distance. Watch Woodchopper in cheaper company.

Scratched—Pert Child, 91.

Overweights—Walter J, 4 pounds.

Time, 25½, 52, 1:04¾, 1:16¾.

Winner—B. h, 5, by Muscovy—Holmdel.

Start perfect. Won handily. Meadow Lark is very good in his class. Lost Girl, Rienzi and Viking showed great improvement. Midas don't like weight. Greenback Jr. got an easy ride. Nelson is a bad actor and seldom gets off well. He is only good for five furlongs.

Scratched—Zylpha, 105.

Overweights—Rienzi, 4 pounds.

In races not of heats, a dead heat for the first place is to be run off on the same day, at the time the stewards appoint, but at an interval of not less than twenty minutes, unless the race admits of division and the owners agree to divide, or one of the horses making such dead heat be withdrawn.

The other rules and amendments, which were carried, chiefly related to technicalities in conditions of races.

The rule which forbade owners, trainers, or any one interested in a horse from betting against him was laid over.

The proposed new rules to regulate the sale of an animal with engagements were quashed.
